I may not have much experience in design, I realized that I was on the right track. I'm crazy about typography, brutalism and Swiss style. I'm not going to stop at just graphics. I love working with printmaking, 3D and animation, but it's all in the learning curve for now. I love facing challenges and breaking my head on a new project. If you are interested in my resume, email me on any of my social media or give me a call.
