Correspondent, journalist, author of articles and photo reports

Key information

I am distinguished by optimism, a large supply of ideas and a high ability to learn. I strictly adhere to deadlines and academic integrity in my work. I believe that the best journalist is a determined journalist, so I do not hesitate to ask questions (sometimes not very convenient) to representatives of the authorities. I actively follow the news in the world and know what is current and what is not. I respect my work and time. Always open to criticism.

I can: write long articles on various topics, copy materials, take photos, operate databases, take comments, interviews, etc.
